Florida's Economic Future: A Policymaker's Perspective on the Economic Fate of the Sunshine State

Featuring one of Florida's most influential political leaders

Dean Cannon

DATE: Tuesday, June 30, 2009

TIME: 11:30 a.m. – 1 p.m.

PLACE: Church Street Station Ballroom
225 S. Garland Avenue, Orlando

COST: $40 pp/$300 corporate table (10)

Representative Dean Cannon capably represents the citizens of District 35 in Orange County. Shortly after his election to office in 2004, his peers in the Florida House of Representatives honored him by selecting him to serve as Speaker of the House beginning in 2010. This action represented one of the swiftest ascensions to power in Florida political history.

As a leader in the Florida Legislature, he has championed property tax reform, regulatory reform, private property rights and fiscal accountability. He has served as the lead negotiator with the Florida Senate in working to solve some of the most challenging issues facing the State of Florida.

Representative Cannon's professional background as an attorney and advocate practicing in the areas of local government, land use and property rights law has provided him with a unique appreciation for the impact of government on Florida's economy. Join us on June 30th to hear his views on the reforms needed to drive Florida's economic recovery! ■
